REED MAY LOSE HIS GRIP.

President Said to be More Firm Than Ever.

CABLE FOR RAPID FIRE GUNS.

San Francisco in the Thames—Special Trains Carry Troops to Atlanta and the Gulf Forts.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 17—Friends of Cuba in congress threaten to break away from Speaker Reed and recognize Cuban independence. Paunceforte's assurances to the president that the queen sympathizes with the president's humanitarian plan of putting an end to Spanish barbarism in Cuba indicate that Spain will not be able to secure any British support. The president is firmer than ever in his attitude toward Spain.

TRANSPORTING TROOPS.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Portsmouth, March 17—Arrangements have been made for transporting troops from their quarters here to Atlanta and the Gulf coast forts. Special trains bearing them will leave this evening.

SAN FRANCISCO AT LONDON.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, March 17—The cruiser San Francisco arrived today and is steaming up the Thames. The cruiser Amazonas will be taken possession of by the Americans tomorrow.

GUNS FROM ARMSTRONGS.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Washington, March 17—The first disbursement of the fifty million dollars was cabled to the Armstrongs in London today for twelve rapid fire guns, including their mounts and ammunition.

"Kid" Wilson Captured.

Telegram readers will remember that several weeks ago a young lady, a student of the Normal, was robbed of her pocket book by an unknown negro on Walker avenue. Seeing the pocket book in the young lady's hand the negro hastily snatched it and made off.

Policemen Weatherly and Whittington some time afterwards worked up evidence which pointed to "Kid" Wilson as the thief, and spotted him, locating him in Winston. They were on the alert and looking out for him, yesterday learned that he had been arrested in Winston on a charge of thieving. The Winston authorities were notified of his robbing the young lady here and we are informed that he has confessed his guilt. If the case at Winston is not a strong one he will be turned over to the authorities here.

Notice to Library Committee.

There will be a meeting of the public library committee tomorrow afternoon at 5:15 o'clock, in the office of Dr. Richardson, in Katz building. All members are requested to be on hand promptly, as matters of importance are to come before the committee. By order of the president,

P. P. Claxton.
C. P. Sapp, Secretary.

Riley and His Valise.

James Whitcomb Riley, the poet, says: "I am continually haunted by the fear that my trunk will be lost, so I go about the country with a grip. In case there is ever a fearful railway accident and among the debris is a valise with an arm attached to it firmly they may bury it without further identification as the fragments of the Hoosier poet."

A Handsome Catalogue.

We are in recept of a handsome catalogue issued by the Greensboro Rustic and Artistic Manufacturing Company. The designs of rustics shown are especially artistic and attractive and many a lawn and shady nook in Greensboro should be ornamented with them before the summer is over. The company was incorporated some time ago with H. F. Starr, president; Chas. L. Andrews, secretary; John A. Young, treasurer. The factory of the company is now in running order and it proposes to supply everything from a hanging basket to a rustic bridge.

Another Ship Bought.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Mar. 17—A Rome special says that Spain has bought the Italian cruiser Varese.

WASHINGTON DOUBTS IT.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Mar. 17—The report that Italy is about to sell any ships to Spain is considered as highly improbable.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N.C., March 17, '98.

The High Point Christian Union is axiously anticipating the coming of the Christian Endeavor convention, which will assemble here tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. A large attendance is expected and all of the necessary arrangements have been made.

[Our correspondent sent the entire program for publication, but owing to the length of it and the time it was received, we are compelled to omit it.—Telegram.]

The young ladies of the Christian Endeavor Union have handsomely decorated the Presbyterian church with flowers, ferns and potted plants.

Mrs. Geo. E. Nissen, of Salem, who has been visiting her daugher, Mrs. R. C. Charles, returned home this morning.

The local reception committee of the C. E. Union has been very busy the past week assigning delegates to various homes. A large crowd is expected. A bus will run daily between here and winston.

Edwin A. Davis, leading man in "His Excellency" company, possesses youth, talent and ambition, and our people will no doubt turn out en mass to see a good play produced by a good play produced by an excellent company. Remember the date, Tuesday night, March 22d.

The Chicago Fire.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, March 17—By the discovery today of the charred body of a woman in the ruins of the Emerson piano building the number of victims of yesterdays fire has been increased to four; fifteen are missing.

Twitted the Wrong Man.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Huntington, W. Va., March 17—Mark Stevens, a Civil War veteran, twitted F. Cross Young, a militiaman, about his patriotism today when the latter fired three bullets in Stevens, killing him instantly.

To Defend New Haven.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New Haven, March 17—The government has promised to place three coast defense guns on disappearing carriages and eight motors in the harbor to protect the city in case of war.

Register Bruce Dead.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 17—Register of the Treasury Bruce died this morning. He had been ill for some weeks.

Ready to Go.

Dr. Blue Mountain Joe's advertising wagon was circulating in the eastern part of the county Tuesday. The wagon passed Mr. J. N. Lee's place, where a number of negroes were getting some new ground ready. The agent threw in the circulars and called out:

"Get ready to go to war; got to go Thursday!"

When the overseer went to the field none of the darkies were at work. He asked why they had quit. "Well," they said, "we have to go to war on Thursday and don't see no use working in the new ground any more."—Charlotte Observer.

A Growing Nuisance.

A little observation will show that the number of itinerant beggars, the fellows who have work just down the road, or are getting home after a long illness, or are disabled by some affliction, is steadily growing. In nine cases out of ten they are frauds and professional dead beats. Those who are not able to take care of themselves are provided for at public expense. Over half of these seekers of smypathy and a small contribution make their requests with a breath that half the barrooms in town have helped to laden. They are fakes pure and simple. Run them in.

The Centenary Meeting.

The meeting at Centenary church continues with increasing interest and attendance. The congregation last night was much larger than at any of the former services. Rev. Mr. Fry's sermon was directed at church members, and was a most earnest appeal for a united church. The necessity for such preaching is apparent in every church in the land. It was plain, pointed, full of power and pathos, feeling and fervor. You cannot spend a more profitable hour than to hear him tonight at eight o'clock.

TRYING TO BUY FROM ITALY

The Spaniards Are After Four More Cruisers.

MATTER UNDER CONSIDERATION

General Miles Says The Outlook is Serious But The Government is Prepared.

Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Mar. 17—Spain is making a desperate effort to secure a navy able to cope with that of the United States. This is shown by the offer just made to the Italian government for the purchase of four cruisers. Three of these are modern first class cruisers and are now a part of the Italian navy. The fourth, the Carlo Alberto, is now building. The Italian consul has been summoned to consider the matter.

VIEWS OF GENERAL MILES.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Mar. 17—General Miles said before starting to Washington this morning that it was difficult to tell the outcome of the present tangle. Matters look serious but the country is prepared for any emergency.

FERN GOES TO HAVANA.

Necessary for Some Boat to Run Errands.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Key West, Mar. 17—Contrary to expectations the Fern sailed this morning for Havana. Admiral Sicard said, "with the Montgomery at Havana we must have some boat to run errands." Some other vessel than the Nashville is likely to carry provisions to Cuba.

THE POPULIST POW WOW.

Divided on the All-Absorbing Question of Fusion.

The populist conference met at 6 o'clock in the senate chamber. Hal W. Ayer called it to order and called Dr. Cy Thompson to the chair. Ayer was then made secretary with Dolly and Rivers assistants. Letters from populists were read for two hours, and a recess was taken. It is claimed that 75 populists are present. They spent most of the day caucusing and conferring, and fairly swarmed in the offices in the capitol.

The conference is still in session at 1 o'clock a. m., with no prospects of adjournment for several hours. Railroad Commissioner Caldwell introduced a resolution earnestly requesting the state executive committee to meet not later than April 1st, and that primaries be called at the earliest date so as to have an early convention. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The speeches were confined to 5 minutes. Nearly al the visitors spoke, reporting the conditions of their respective counties. There appeared to be a division for fusion on state matters. A large number are favorable to fusion with the democrats, national fusion in accordance with Butler's plan was opposed by some, who said they doubted the sincerity of the democrats.—Col. Olds Correspondence.

Want to Come North.

Havana, March 16—The officers of the Maine who remain here are disappointed at not being ordered north, and believe they will not be sent back to the United States until it is certain that the court of inquiry into the loss of the battleship will not return to Havana.

With the arrival of the big derrick Chief and other machinery, the wrecking work already shows signs of progress. The naval divers are still working about the wreck, under the direction of Captain Sigsbee and Lieutenant Commander Wainwright, with Ensign Powellson, to make any changes which may be called for by new discoveries.

Where Has it Gone?

A searching party should be organized to find the new depot promised Greensboro by the Southern railway. It seems to have disappeared without leaving so much as a track in the sand or a trace of dust in the air. Every once in a while somebody inquires about it in a hopeless sort of way. It really looks as though the old, old eye-sore will remain and passengers be compelled to roast and swelter in the beastly little hole, now passing for a depot, throughout the summer.

A LETTER OF BUTCHER WEYLER

He Had Planned to Blow Up The Maine.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Mar. 17—The Evening Journal prints a letter from "Butcher" Weyler to the editor of a Spanish loyalty paper in Havana dated January 8th, in which plans for blowing up the Maine are given in the following language: "By the way I have read these days that the Americans are pondering about sending one of their warships there. During my command in Cuba they did not even dare dream about it. They knew how terrible a punishment awaited them. I had the Havana harbor well prepared for such an emergency. I rapidly finished the work, Campos had abandoned. If the insult is offered I hope that there will be a Spanish hand to punish it as terribly as it deserves.

MRS. THURSTON'S DEATH SHOCK.

Horrified at the Distress She Witnessed in Matanzas.

Key West, Fla. Mar. 15—The American yacht Anita, having on board the body of Mrs. Thurston, wife of Senator Thurston, and the members of the congressional party who have been visiting Cuba, arrived here this afternoon from Matanzas.

Mrs. Thurston died at noon yesterday of heart disease, believed to be hereditary. She had been much affected at the scenes of suffering she witnessed at Matanzas, especially in the case of the skeleton-like children.

Mrs. Thurston, when conscious that her end was near, said: "I am not sorry to go to rest, but I am grieved that my own children will be motherless."

Mrs. Thurston has worn a small American flag next to her heart ever since the trip was commenced, and when she died the flag was clasped to her breast.

She was noted for her great humanity, and when at Matanzas saw a gaunt mother sadly embracing her dying child. The feelings of Mrs. Thurston were so much excited by this sad scene, and probably this incident helped to hasten the end.

THE TRIALS OF EWART.

Opposition Now is an Attack on His Moral Character.

Washington, Mar. 16—Senator Butler said this afternoon that enough evidence had been submitted to the Senate judiciary committee to insure the rejection of Judge Ewart's nomination. He also said that he had more evidence that the committee could summon if they were not satisfied with the testimony already given. The opposition to Judge Ewart has now become an attack on his moral character. The impression today is that the sub-committee, which heard the charges against Ewart, will wind up the case this week. Senator Butler said today he is confident that Ewart will be defeated. Friends of the Judge however, are still hopeful that he will win out.—News and Observer.

TOM WATSON FOR GOVERNOR.

He is Nominated by the Georgia Populists.

Atlanta, Ga., Mar. 16—Amid a whirlwind of enthusiasm, and in spite of the numerous protests which he has made, Thomas E. Watson was nominated for Governor of Georgia by the Populist state convention today.

On Monday Watson made the "final declaration" that he would not attend the convention and would decline the nomination, but 225 delegates paid no attention to his assertion and the only discord in the deliberations of the convention was in the selection of the running mates for Watson.

A QUARTER OF A MILLION.

Estimate of the Troops North Carolina Could Furnish.

President McKinley yesterday telegraphed Governor Russell asking how many men North Carolina could furnish in case hostilities should be declared between the United States and Spain.

His Excellency replied that should it become necessary, in defense of the flag and to free Cuba, the Old North State could send 245,000 able-bodied fighters.—News and Observer.

WHAT THE PRESIDENT WILL DO

He Will Claim That Spain is Legally Responsible.

SPAIN WILL CLAIM CONTRARY.

McKinley Will Not Ask Congress to Act but Will Take the Initiative in the Matter Himself.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, March 17—The Evening Journal's Washington special says: The authorities are already aware of what the court of inquiry report will contain when it reaches Washington. The president will fix upon a plan of action. The report will be delivered in Washington between now and Monday, according to the best information in public circles. The president will claim that Spain is legally responsible, through contributary negligence for the destruction of the Maine. This, it is thought, Spain will deny, citing internal accident as the cause. The president, ignoring Spain's answer, will demand an indemnity and at the same time will lay the consulor reports from Cuba before congress revealing the failure of autonomy. The president will not recommend any action to congress. The course chosen by the president precludes any action by congress.

More Accurate Service in Greensboro Than Baltimore

Mr. C. M. Vanstory had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vanstory sent the old lenses with an explanation to the occulist who had given the prescription and in reply received the following;

A CRESCENDO PROTEST.

We find the following empurpled epitome of democratic baseness garnished with brimstone figures of rhetoric in the Progressive Farmer:

It is very well to exclaim in a burst of enthusiasm, "I care not under what name or leader I fight if he carries the banner of free coinage and the people'e rights." But it is dangerous to carry it into practice without reason and judgment, because sometimes the livery of heaven is stolen to serve the devil in, and so, the democratic machine has stole a part of the livery of populism to win the offices, to serve themselves, the money king—the enemies of populism and liberty. Fusion with the "democratic machine that is controlled by gold bugs this year and will be again in 1900" means death to the populist party and populism.

Populists, soldiers of the rank and file, the question is before you, fusion or no fusion, which?

P. L. Gardner.

Cherryville, N. C., Feb. 28, '98.

Ah, truly good sage of the metropolis where cherries abound who is spoiling to fuse with the populists? Is not the essence of populism "reason and judgment?" Nay, rather let us say is not populism the essence of reason and judgment. Neither could exist without it. Is it probable that a man versed in the sacred mysteries of the initiative and referendum would poke his head blindly into the mouth of the octopus or a rat hole? But the sage in his rapt conlation makes one mistake. The populists do not wear livery. Livery is plutocratic. He should have said armor. Ceaseless warfare against the spiked dragon and his minions requires "bars of brass and triple steel." Let the faithful soldier sleep in his armor hereafter, lest it be stolen away by night.

Those who imagine that Mr. Marion Butler has been giving his time exclusively to doing the sack cloth and ashes act over any slips of his political past will do well to keep an eye on that savior of the people. It is tolerably certain that he has already formulated a plan which is calculated to put the democracy in an awkward position. The only safety lies in being quite as alert as Mr. Butler. The leaders of the democracy, if it has any, have now an excellent opportunity to deserve gratitude by checkmating the thirster after octopian gore and the manufacturer of utopian dreams.

Ah, that duel between the Marquis de Alta Villa and Senator Mason! Let it be fought in the open air where playing zephyrs will furnish the gusts of combat. Let Messrs. Stewart, Peffer, De Lome and Weyler be the seconds and let there be a dozen stenographers and fourteen phonographs to preserve a record of the shots. Then let the whirlwinds rush and roar.

Judged by the treatment accorded Congressman Kitchin by Congressman Linney there will probably some time elapse before congressional courtesy will become so much of a household word as senatorial courtesy.

The repeated reports about the purchase of warships are beginning to assume a Weyler hue.

Those who may have imagined that the Don was losing any of his nerve are respectfully requested to place his question as to why this country is buying warships and his modest demand that the squadron be withdrawn from Key West in juxtapositton.

Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts, has introduced a bill to prohibit the importation into the United States of birds or their feathers for ornamental purposes. The senator should rest content. As a rara avis his plumage cannot be duplicated.

The movements of the "Bull of the Brushies" in the matter of removing the Federal Court to Winston will necessitate changing the name of that illustrious bovine to the more intellectual one of the "Fox of the Foothills."

The Havana newspaper which asserts that the sugar trust is responsible for the bellicose attitude of the United States opens a new vista of Spanish acumen. The United States have just had enough; that is all.

The Hon. Thomas Watson instead of flaunting sinuously as the tail of the kite now marches in bloody thunder at the head of the procession.

If the board of inquiry is to report Friday or Saturday this morning's saffron sheets may be depended on for a full text, when they reach us.

From all accounts the assemblage of populist thinkers at Raleigh last night had enough variety in their thinks to make life spicy.

General News in a Nutshell.

Jealousy of the first husband of the widow he had married drove a French man to kill his wife and then himself recently in Paris.

A Welsh member of Parliament has asked the Government to secure free passes for members on the railroads of the United Kingdom.

Five women convicts are confined in the penitentiary at Thomason, Me. All of them are serving life sentences for murder in the first degree.

Russia has ordered a 10,000 horse power ice breaker of the Armstrongs, to cost $800,000. It will be ready in October, and will be used to keep open navigation to St. Petersburg, throughout the winter.

Bean fever has been added to the list of epidemics like hay fever and rose fever by a German doctor, who has christened his discovery "Favismus." His cure for the disease is to keep away from beanfields.

A New York statioder who has an eye to business removed the ordinary display of goods from his window when the war scare arose and filled it with "regmental gray" note paper and "navy blue" sealing wax.

Paris is suffering from a plague of rats living in the sewers and in the cellars of the Palais Royal and the Halles Centrales. Le Gaulois suggests that the sewers be divided into sections and let to sporting men for ratting contests.

Traffic through the Suez Canal fell off greatly in 1897, the amount being the smallest in fifteen years; 2,986 steamers of 7,898,981 tons register passed through, as compared with 3,408 steamers of 8,562,237 tons in 1896 and about the same number in 1895.

It is said that that the Prince of Wales makes it a rule to pay for his telegrams, his boxes at the theatres, his railway tickets, and, in fact, everything he uses. Some of his numerons imitators on this side of the Atlantic would do well to follow his example as closely in this as in many other repects.

Auction sales are as quietly conducted in Japan as funerals in this country. Each bidder writes his name on a piece of paper, together with the amount he is willing to pay for the article for sale and places it in a box. Then the box is opened and the article is declared the property of the highest bidder.

The British museum has secured possession of what is probably the oldest piece of wrought iron in existence, in the shape of a roughly fashioned sickle blade found by Belzoni in Karnas, near Thebes, Egypt. It was embedded in mortar under the base of the Sphinx and is believed to have been made nearly 4000 years ago.

I cannot say enough for its merits.' Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

EDITOR KILLED.

Shot by a Man Who Was Employed as a Guard.

Atlanta, March 15—John Connelly, editor the Plow Boy, published at East Point, Ga., was shot and killed tonight by J. C. Cox, a watchman. The crime was the result of litigation over an estate.

Mr. Connelly, who is well known, was some time ago removed as administrator of the John Broad estate. It was charged that he has misappropriated the funds of the estate and had bought property and turned it over to his wife.

There were several judgments obtained against Connelly and part of the property claimed for his wife was sold at sheriff's sale last Saturday and purchased by J. B. Redwine. The property was still claimed by Connelly, and Redwine employed Cox to watch it.

Final Contract Signed.

London, March 16—The final contract providing for the sale of the warships Amazonas and Admiral Abrenall, to the United States has been signed. The price is something over 500,000 pounds sterling ($2,500,000) for both ships. An American crew is expected here tonight to take possession of the Amazonas on Friday.

A Small Sop for Greensboro.

Washington, March 16—Amendments to the sundry civil bill were favorably reported from the senate committee on public buildings appropriating $2,000 for additions to the public building at Greensboro, N. C., and $100,000 for a Federal penitentiary near Asheville, N. C.

The semi-official Italia denies that Spain has sought to procure the support of any power in a conflict with the United States.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Tonsilitis Tonsilitis

Tonsilitis Can Be Cured. Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy will do it.

Eagle, Iredell Co., N. C., December 10, 1897.

For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial trouble which, every time he took cotd, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsilitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything and could take no solid food. Last spring he took one-half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled with the Wash, and it cured him. He has not had a spell since.

The Lamp
that lights the way to Good Health

is a bottle of the greatest of all blood purifiers—

Johnston's Sarsaparilla
QUART BOTTLES.

This great blood purifier and nerve tonic, cures diseases by removing from the system, the conditions which produce them. It expels all poison and impurity from the blood. It acts upon the nerves as a stimulant, particularly upon those nerves belonging to the great organs of the body; therefore, it causes the heart to beat with greater force, the lungs to take in more oxygen and to expel more carbonic acid; it induces the kidneys to send off more of the poisonous excretions from the blood; the bowels to have more regularity and healthfulness in their action; the sweat glands to throw out more impurities.

Our illustrated book of 36 pages will tell you what is the matter and what to do. Its free for the asking. Quart bottle, $1.00.

Dog With Gold Filled Teeth.

One of the most interesting "points"—to some people—of a handsome Gordon setter at the dog show last week was his teeth, which had a gentlemanly, well-kept appearance, with here and there, in the eye teeth, a spot of gold, which showed that he was a regular visitor to the dentist.

"Poor fellow," said a sympathetic woman, "did he like to have it done?"

"Oh, he didn't mind much," said the owner. "We have taught him to do a great many tricks, and one of them was to stand up on his hind legs. So when his teeth needed attention I took him to a regular dentist; we put him up in the chair, had him stand on his hind feet and the dentist did the work without any trouble.

"He didn't really enjoy it very much, perhaps, when the instrument got a little near the nerve, but he didn't make any fuss. He only gave a long, low groan, as though he was saying 'Oh-o-o-o-o,' very much as any one would in the same position."—New York Times.

Butler Hasn't Got Time.

"Why didn't Senator Butler come to the conference?" was asked one of his right bowers yesterday.

"He didn't have time was the reply. Between the fight against Ewart and the crisis on the Cuban question he has his hands about full."

"But the other congressmen; why didn't they come?"

Strowd's wife was sick, Fowler didn't have a wife, Shuford couldn't come and Harry Skinner wouldn't come because the others couldn't."—News and Observer.

A WOMAN THE STAKE.

SHE WAS PLAYED AGAINST $50,000 IN A GAME OF ECARTE.

Though the Kentuckian Won at the Game, He Was Beaten In Another Way—Strange Story of an Old, Grewsome Looking House In San Francisco.

In 1867 there stood an old fashioned shanty east of the locality now occupied by the Presentation convent, in front of the graveyard, and the people in the neighborhood used to tell strange stories about this grewsome looking dwelling. For several years its occupancy was apparently confined to a decrepit old man, who used to crawl in and out about once a day, his arms filled with packages from the market.

He was known in the neighborhood as the old dago, though in reality he was a native of Alsace. For several years he lived a hermit's life, and the neighbors got so accustomed to his comings and goings that even the small boys forgot to molest him. But one morning all the gossips found food for conversation by the appearance of a remarkably lovely young woman who went out to and returned from the butcher's stall and the grocer's. She spoke English imperfectly and with a very pronounced French accent. This little cabin was destined to be the scene of a very dramatic incident in the history of California gambling.

It was natural that a girl as pretty as Irene should not be long without admirers, so it came to pass that the windows of the old house were lighted up every evening, and the Frenchman developed the natural hospitality of his race and gave little dinners and suppers to his exiled countrymen. But among those, as was only natural, there were some who existed not by honest industry, but by the gaming table. Among them was a young man of striking appearance who had served in France as sous officier in a hussar regiment, had gone the pace, ruined himself, and finally drifted out to San Francisco, where he became the hanger on of the gambling table.

Louis Le Marronais was a strikingly handsome specimen of the Parisian of his class. It did not take him very long to gain the confidence of the old Frenchman, and to him he confided the story of his life. It was not a very eventful one. He was a member of an old French family and could use if he pleased a title which dated back to Charles the Bold. He had been ruined by the extravagance of his younger brother and was then living on the income of a little property in Brittany, which he had saved from the wreck. Irene was his only child, and he idolized her. For her sake alone he wanted to be rich. He wanted to take her back to France and reinstate her in the position to which her rank entitled her.

The ex-hussar won the old man into the belief that his only chance of getting rich was through gambling. So night after night old Lescant was found at the El Dorado or some other gaming hell losing his money under the direction of the arch mentor. One night Irene followed him there to bring him back, and her first visit was a fateful one. Tom Monroe, a Kentuckian, one of the wildest and most reckless characters of that period, saw her, admired her and swore that she should become his property.

It is not necessary to recite the incidents that led up to the scene, which were related to me by an eyewitness. It is sufficient to say that Le Marronais had convinced the old Frenchman that Monroe would stake $50,000 against the hand of Irene. If he won, she was to become his wife, but if he lost the money was to become the Frenchman's property and Irene was free to bestow her affections wherever she pleased. Irene was informed of this proposition, and she looked resigned and rather amused at the transaction.

The eventful night arrived. Monroe, the old man, Louis, Irene and a friend and countryman of the host were the only inmates of the little room. The game was ecarte, and the cards, which Louis had marked, lay upon the table. The old man got the deal. Monroe's certified check for $50,000 was placed in the custody of the hussar. The old man marked the king in the first deal, and when the pack changed hands he had the best of the game. The play went on, and in the last hand Monroe scored every point.

"Irene is mine!" shouted the Kentuckian, reaching for his check.

At this moment the lights were dashed out, and Monroe fell to the floor from the stroke of some heavy instrument. The only disinterested spectator of the scene fled from the room. The next morning there was no sign of life in the old house, and in the evening when the milkman knocked he heard a groaning from the inside. He forced his way into the house and discovered the wretched Kentuckian bound hand and foot. Monroe, avowing murder, rushed the next morning to the banking house. The check had been cashed by an individual who answered the description of the hussar. The other actors in this startling scene were never heard of. Nothing in the house was disturbed, not even the girl's wearing apparel, and the incident became a portion of this strange history of old time gambling in San Francisco.—San Francisco News Letter.

One More Idiot.

Tobacconist—If you'll keep quiet about it, I'll tell you how I manage to make money out of cigars. When a man comes in and asks me for a good cigar, I invariably recommend that brand that costs me the least. It is a great scheme.

Customer—That's so. What idiots they must all be! By the way, I want you to recommend a good cigar to me.

Tobacconist—Well, confidentially I advise you to take one of these. (Customer goes out.) Only one more idiot; that's all.—Boston Transcript.

The Printer, quite a neat and attractive brochure, has been issued by E. L. Tate, the job printer. The front page contains a calendar for next month and the remaining pages tell of the qualities of his work and the prompt attention given all orders placed with him.

What's in a name? Well, sometimes there is a good deal, and sometimes there is nothing, absolutely nothing. The advertisement of Lindau's new brand of cigars in this paper has been running "Cadazores" when in fact the brand is "Cazadores." This fact, however, does not effect the smoking qualities or detract from the delightful aroma of these cigars.

The handsome black horse belonging to D. Schenck, Jr., was standing near the residence today about 2:30 o'clock, and becoming tired of standing, he broke loose and ran away. The buggy struck a post at the corner of the yard, the shafts were smashed and away ran the then thoroughly frightened animal up North Elm into East Market and then into South Davie, to Vanstory's stable, where he was stopped. At the corner of Market and Davie the horse fell sprawling, but tarried only long enough to get up.

Wray-Nissen.

In the parlor at the Benbow House this morning at 11:30 o'clock Mr. W. M. Nissen and Miss Ida Wade Wray, were united in marriage, Dr. J. H. Weaver officiating. Mr. Nissen is of the well known firm of Geo. E. Nissen & Co., wagon manufacturers of Salem, and is a prominent young business man. The bride is one of the most accomplished and attractive young ladies of Reidsville.

The marriage was witnessed by only a few in the hotel, together with the bride's sister, Mrs. P. T. Wall, of Gallipoles, Ohio, and Mr. O. J. Sheppard, of Winston. They left on the noon train for Reidsville, where they spent the afternoon. They leave tonight for New Orleans, New York, San Francisco and other points. They will be gone about two months.

Nay, We Seen It Too.

The only evidence that either of our Raleigh morning contemporaries ever gives that it has any knowledge of the existence of the other, is that each, every few days, refers to something that it had previously printed and states that it appeared "exclusively" in its columns. This is a discovery which has been made exclusively by the Charlotte Observer.—Charlotte Observer.

Yellow Pine, 50 cents, is the cheapest because it cures coughs. All druggists.

ANOTHER GREEN HOUSE.

Will Be Built By Mr. Lindley Specially For Cut Flowers.

A new green house 30x100 feet is to be built by Mr. Lindley at Pomona, to be used specially for cut flowers. This will add greatly to Mr. Lindley's already excellent facilities for growing fine flowers. It is his intention to grow as fine specimens of all the popular varieties as can be found or furnished by any florist in the land.

Mr. Lindley has done much in the way of making it possible to purchase funeral or marriage floral designs at home and on short notice and he will be much better equipped than ever, besides being able to furnish larger and more perfect blooms.

He has a regularly employed and skilled florist, who makes a specialty of new and unique designs. We understand that the area of glass frames will also be enlarged.

Did She Attempt Suicide.

Last night about 11 o'clock a negro woman named Emma Bass was found apparently dead on the C. F. and Y. V. railroad track, near Huffines' new building.

The matter was reported to the police, who investigated and found that she was alive. She was removed to the jail and medical aid secured.

The doctor found that she had taken laudanum and was in a critical way. She is alive today but is in a kind of stupor and it is not known whether the overdose was taken by mistake or whether she tried to end her life.

New Trial Ordered.

A new trial has been ordered by the Supreme Court in the case of M. L. Coble vs. the Southern Railway Co. Judge McIver decided in the Superior Court that Coble was not entitled to recover on his own testimony. The Supreme Court reversed his decision. The suit is an important one, the action being for $10,000 damages for injuries caused by the negligence of the railway company.

The plaintiff is represented by Shenck & Shenck and Chas. M. Stedman and the railway company by F. H. Busbee.

The Shaking Party.

The Shaking Quakers will make their appearance this evening at the residence of Dr. G. W. Whitsett from 8:30 to 9 o'clock.

The bicycle is no longer a fad, but a substantial necessity to the business man and every man who values his time and his health. See our advertising columns for information concerning the best wheel.

—o—

Every one looks anxiously for the war news. Will there be war or will there not be, and if there should be, will goods "go up" to "war prices?" We don't know but we have a large stock of everything the housekeeper, farmer and merchant need, so we, as well as Uncle Sam, are prepared for war.

—o—

"What's all that racket going on over there?" asked the new arrival in Oklahoma.

"Hangin' a man for stealin' a wheel" replied the old resident.

"Isn't that a pretty severe punishment for a slight offense?",

"Slight? Why, stranger, it was a '98 model."

(Must have been a Crawford.)

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Third Year of The Crawford

in Greensboro is upon us. Investigate its record. Ask the riders, more numerous than those of any other wheel of its grade.

Have You Seen The Tribune?

It is not a new wheel, but this is the first season it has been in our stock. You just ought to see the wheel spin around.

Cheap Enough:
The Crawford at $50.

But we have Crawfords even cheaper, of the highest grade, though not quite up to the '98 model in beauty of design.
